GLHN ARCHITECTS & ENGINEERS, INC. SELECTS
HENRY JOHNSTONE P.E. AS PRESIDENT

NEW LEADER AIMS TO CARRY THE MOMENTUM OF THE PRESENT INTO THE FUTURE

TUCSON, AZ (November 4, 2013)— Continuing the firm's planned transition to a new generation of leadership, the Board of Directors of GLHN Architects & Engineers, Inc. has unanimously elected Henry Johnstone, P.E. as GLHN's new President. Johnstone, who previously served as Vice President and Director of Mechanical Engineering, will take over the day to day responsibilities of running the firm, while Bill Nelson, who as President has guided GLHN through an extraordinary period of growth and development during the past 25 years, concentrates his efforts on business development and selective projects.

GLHN's Trustees also elected Robert Lamb, GLHN's new Chief Operations Officer, to a seat on the Board.

Established in 1963, GLHN Architects & Engineers, Inc. is an employee-owned multi-discipline firm and houses integrated services in architecture and mechanical, electrical, civil, and technology engineering. Employees, clients and friends of the firm celebrated the 50th anniversary of GLHN's founding in October of this year.
