NICHOLAS C. KRAUJA, AIA RECEIVES ACHA BOARD CERTIFICATE

KRAUJA JOINS SELECT GROUP OF CERTIFIED HEALTHCARE SPECIALISTS

TUCSON, AZ (September 9, 2015)— The American College of Healthcare Architects (ACHA) has announced that Nicholas C. Krauja, AIA has earned his Board Certificate in healthcare architecture. Krauja passed an accredited examination that assesses the knowledge and understanding of architects who practice as healthcare specialists. He joins more than 400 ACHA colleagues in the United States and Canada who have received this important architectural credential.

Krauja has been with GLHN since 1994 and has over 30 years of experience. He has served as Project Architect on over 100 assignments for the Department of Veterans Affairs, including VA Facility Development Plans, Capital Facilities Studies, Study of Protection Against Hurricanes, and projects involving design of hospital renovations, outpatient clinics, and laboratories.
